INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF TIMBER AND LUM BER. - Daddy Carn wants to know "what is the filled? Why, yes; there is a general somebody t ) be made, by which the poor people will have to pay more taxes. Oh! this City Council o ours is a delightful snuff-box-everybody may sneeze who can get a pinch."

A Discaprair Chown.—Three colored men, named respectively Ed. Huger, Wm. Huger and Thomas Rowland, were arraigned before the Mayor Saturday for disorderly conduct. It appeared from the testimony that one of them sized a knife and ran after the other two, one of whom had picked up a brick. To running he struck his bead against the corder of a building, and swore that he had been struck with a brick. The Mayor imposed a fine of $5 upon each one.

SAD CASE OF DEGWNING .- Yesterday afternoon several little boys went in bathing at the Greloge, in front of Fort himilific. Among them were two sont of Mr. Jungblath, who lives at the corner of Wentworth and Meeting streets. The elder of the two got into a hole. His brother went to his assistance, and was taken, by the undertow beyond his depth and drowned before absistance could be given The elder one was rescued when in an ex-hausted condition. The body of the little fellow was not recovered of realist to Bischangen,-We have already mentioned the arrest of a negro named Stephen Jones; for stealing $6. He was arrangued before Justace Mackey on Saturday. Stephen seated that the man from whom it was said he had stolen the money had any number of wives, who were always quarrelling, and he was of the opinion that one of them had stolen the money. There was no evidence whatever to establish the guilt of the accused, and he was discharged. Stephen was one of the negroes who stele $1500 from Mr. Fleming, on King-street, about

Boar Racing .- In speaks g of the late boat race here between the Blackscake and Oriole, the Savaonah A vertiser says the time made by them will compare very favorably with that of our crack four-pared boats, and we think our Charleston friends can well afford to give us a trial with them at aquatic skill. When the Carolinas visit our city, we must get up a boat race for their benefit. It were certa nly impossible to suggest too many amusements impossible to suggest the honors with which they recently loaded the representatives

THE CRAIG ROBBRY IN AUGUSTA.—In July last the office of Mr. John Graig, broker, in Augusta, was robbed of a package southing $5000 in greenbacks. Several persons were suspecied, but no moriminating evidence was brought to light. Two colored boys, named Johnson and Boyer, were known to have been spanding money very treely last week and were watched. The suspicion against them became watched. The suspicion against them became scopity. Three colored men offered to give strong, and of Thursday night they were are five bundred! dollars ca.h, and a fourth was rested. Ultimately the two boys confessed the shortly after presented, and the prisoner was robbery, and $2100 was recovered, $1910 being released to appear for trial before the State bidden in a mattress.

THE DATE WAR ENDED-ALL QUIET. THE LAIE WAR EMPED—ALL QUET.

The last great sensa ion in these parts has subsided, and our good citizens rejoice in the blissiul assurance of peace. The great match of the Baso Laid Gause of Savanati and Charleston has passed into the region of 'bygones,' nobody hurt, ever, body satisfied and the "shame" wiped out, which clouded the faces of our good citizens. We are heartily giad that this affair has passed off in so chierriul a manner, with the regret, however, that our good friends of The Dally News should have worked themselves up into such a storm of wrath, because of our atticle on the expressions of a number of men from Augusta, who were on their way returning from this city on staterday night, and who expressed their hatred of the negroes of South Carolins. They indicated that they were rounder, and we characteriz. I them as such no-cause thoy said that they came to Cha leston for the purpose of leaching the Charreston negroes their places. We said not a word about the base ball players, nor did we allude to them at all; but the man in The News office was doubtless laboring under the effects of the late occipse, or else had been in the melecon Salurday night, and bad felt the effects of that entamined, at the corner of Calbionn and King streets. No one, unless they are intensely blind to truth, or burning with negro hate, could have distorted our language are such a meaning as that given by The News. We are at a less to understand how that paper can, with such cool affrontery, brand in with "bloody" intentions for atsting faces, and drawing reasonable deductious therefrom. We feer that The News was over auxious to get up a row on somebody. Well, we can only relierate our former assertion, that the South Carolina negro is so much like South Carolina white men that they will not not yield their rights lightly. Virginia negroes are not deficient in that either, and will not yield their right lights in the present peaceful state of stiffs; and assure them that it is in consequence of the peaceable disposit The last great sensa ion in these parts he subsided, and our good citizens rejoice in the

THE AUGUSTA EXPRESS ROBBERY. - A pre limin ry examication of W. C. Hargrove, charged with robbing the Southern Express o nearly $5000, took place in Augusta on Saturday. Bland turned State's evidence, and coned that Hargrove stole the money and gave him (Bland) $144 as h s share of the spoils. The Express messenger was asleep, and the keys of the safe were taken from his pocket by Hargrove and put back when the jub was done.

A NEGRO SHOT AND KILLED. - We learn from passongers who arrived by the South Carolina Railroad train yesterday, that on Saturday near Summerville, a negro named Jenkins shot and killed another negro named Lasso Wright. Jenkins states that he and Wright went out hunting, and his trigger caught in a bush and saused the gun to fire and kill his companion. It was believed by some that Jenkins had murdered Wright in cold blood, and be was arrested. He will be examined to-day.

A ROOK THEOWN AT A POLICEMAN. - About nine o'clock Saturday night a policeman arrest ed a negro for a violation of some one of the market regulation 1. On the way to the Guardbouse with his prisoner, he was followed by large crowd of negroes, one of whom threw a stone weighing about ten pounds, at him, which, fortunately, did not strike him. There was every indication on the part of the crowd to make an attempt to rescue the prisoner. out the firmness of the policeman, who made two or three of them feel the seight of his baton, deterred them from making the at-

An Indignant Wife Stabs a Woman .- A fee days since a soldier left his wife up the country to pay a short visit to the city. While here he got in the company of two strange women, and apparently didn't care whether he ever went home or not. His wife, becoming anxious about his delay, came to look for him. Saturday afternoon she surprised him while cating with the said women. The wife vented her indignation by first cursing all hands and then seizing a fork stabbed one of the women in the groin, inflicting a painful wound. A general melee ensued, and all parties were ar rested and locked up. They afterwards gave security for their appearance before the Mayor this morning.

LOSS OF THE SCHOONER SELAN B. STRONG the schooner Selah B. Strong, Captain Morray, which cleared from this port August 4, with two hundred and eleven tons of phos-phate rock, for Delaware City, and sailed on the 5:h, has, it appears by the following statement taken from the Baltimore Sun, of Friday, August 20th, founds red at sen:

The British bark J. M. Churchill, which arrived at this port yesterdly morning, from Havana, picked up at sea, in an open boat, on the lith instant, Captain Murray, officers and crew of the echooner Solah B. Strong, which vessel foundered in the Guil stream on the 9th. The schooner was from Charleston, bund to Delaware City, and and on board a full cargo of physphate. The schooner belonged to New York, which it is supposed she is maured.

THE LATE VISIT OF THE SAVANNAH CLUB. In an "editorial" headed "The peace of the city," Dady Cain asserts that there would have en no riot on the previous visit of the Savan nah Club "had not a white man, a soldier struck the first blow, and that on an unoffend ing colored citizen. The whole mass of colore itizens had determined that when the ciut visited this city again, rather than bear the plame again of creating a riot, they would stay away from the play, and deprive their nemies of the prete ce of a riot on their part hence several companies, who were to parade went to the woods, leaving no means in the hands of bad men to imply that they paraded in the streets to insuit the Georgians. We believe that it was determined by both whites and blacks that such a disgrace should not occur again in this city. All the colored pe ple want is equal justice and fair play. Give thatwe ask no more."

THE HABRAS CORPUS CASE. - The adjourned abeas corpus case of Charlie Harrison alias Jacobs, nogro, charged with having shot and kill: d Jumes Seabrook, negro, at Dr. Vardei's farm, a shiort distance from this city. was called before Recorder Pringle at 12 o'clock Saturday.

Mr. Walker, prisoner's counsel, read several affidavite, showing that the deceased was erminally initiate with the prisoner's wife, and that the prisoner caught deceased in the bcuse on the Friday night before he was kille l.

THE HUMBOLD' PRETIVAL. -This testival will se celebrated in grand style by the Cincinnati Germans. There will be a procession of ve-hicles containing goddesses of liberty, and other young ladies in white, to move through the city, and to the Union Base Ball Grounds where the festival is to be held. A bust of Humboldt will be erected on the grounds, dec crated with flowery wreaths and crowned with aurelleaves. All the societies participating in the celebration will sing in concert, and there will be several speeches delivered, both in English and German.

Active preparations are making in New York for the celebration of the centenary birthday of Alexander von Humboldt, the renowned naturalist. The principal feature of the celebration will be the unveiling of the Humboldt oust m Central Park.

The day will also be duly celebrated in all the principal cities and towns in the country.
At Philadelphia a monument will be unveiled in Fairmont Park, and another at Pitts urg in Alleghany Park. In Detroit the Cosmos Society will be mangurated, and in Boston s stipendium for worthy students of natural Listory will be founded. At Newark, N. J., the day will be celebrated in aid of the German Hospital. At St. Louis the erection of an ob-servatory proposed by air. Theo, and the pro-ject will probably be carried out. From Milwaukes we hear that a committee, appointed for tost purpose, has submitted a plan for establishing a Humboldt institute,
